

FOCO TWO 1000 SLIM

BIO-30-102

The Foco Two 1000 Slim is an elegant tunnel bioethanol fireplace designed for installation in narrow walls, with a depth of only 20 cm. This fireplace features two open sides, allowing the vibrant flames to be viewed from opposite sides of a wall. With a 4-liter capacity and up to 6.5 hours of burn time per fill, it creates a long-lasting cosy and warm atmosphere. Made from powder-coated stainless steel, the fireplace includes tempered glass panels that protect the flames from drafts, ensuring a stable flame. Ideal for modern interiors, it offers both aesthetic appeal and efficient heating.
