

FOCO ONE 1800

BIO-30-150

Foco One 1800 is a large, one-sided built-in bioethanol fireplace, measuring 180 cm in width. Ideal for installation in walls, it offers a stunning view of the flames from the front. This fireplace is often used under TVs, providing a warm and inviting ambience. Choose between manual burners of 80 cm or upgrade to advanced automatic burners for extended burn time and remote control. The fireplace is constructed from 4 mm powder-coated stainless steel in black that allows the flames to be in focus.
