

LINCOLN - BIOETHANOL WOOD-BURNING STOVE - WHITE

BIO-20-320WH

This elegant freestanding bioethanol fireplace in a classic white wood-burning stove design combines traditional style with modern functionality. Equipped with a door and safety grate to shield from the open flame, it's ideal for homes with children and pets. The bioethanol fireplace is smoke-free, soot-free, and easy to maintain. With a burn time of up to 4.5 hours, it creates a cosy atmosphere without the need for a chimney or electricity.
